

Embracing nursing as a caring profession: A prism of possibilities

ARCASN 2015 Nursing Conference June 11-13 University of New Brunswick Saint John

Pre-Conference Workshop: “Qualitative-Driven Mixed Methods”
with Dr. Janice Morse, RN, PhD, FAAN
*Founding Director, International Institute of Qualitative Methodology
Developer of the “Morse Fall Scale”
Pioneering Research Comforting, Caring, Suffering and Empathy*

Contacts:

Lisa Keeping-Burke, RN, PhD
lisa.keeping-burke@unb.ca • (506) 648-5685
Dianne McCormack, RN, PhD
dmccorma@unb.ca • (506) 648-5734

Atlantic Region Canadian Association of Schools of Nursing
Région Atlantique Association canadienne des écoles de sciences infirmières

Conference Program

June 11:

- 12:30-4:00 Pre-Conference Workshop
- 4:30-6:00 Dr. Jan Morse meets
Doctoral & Master Students
- 6:30-9:00 Registration with Wine
& Cheese and “Nursing
Through The Ages”

June 12

- 7:45-8:15 Registration
- 8:15-8:45 Welcome
- 8:45-10:30 Open Plenary: “On These Things We Are Silent: Can Comforting Be Taught?”,
Dr. Janice Morse
- 11-12 Concurrent Sessions
- 1:00-1:30 Poster Session
- 1:30-4:00 Concurrent Sessions
- 4-6 AGM for ARCASN
Members
- 6:30 Dinner & Trolley Ride

June 13

- 8:30-10:30 Concurrent Sessions
- 11:00-12:15 Closing Plenary: “Leadership
And Caring: Living The Possibilities Through
Embracing Change”,
Dr. Kathleen Valentine
- 12:15 Wrap up

Join us Friday evening for a dinner and trolley ride:
“Saints and Sinners”

Go Fundy Events, 2015

Image modified from iStockphoto, 2008